

Equality Policy

Aldershot and Farnham HC

Policy no AFHC CP14v5

Statement of Intention

Aldershot and Farnham HC is committed to the principles of equality. Aldershot and Farnham HC aims to ensure that all people, irrespective of any of the protected characteristics identified under the Equality Act, including age, gender, ability, race, religion, ethnic origin, creed, colour, social status or sexual orientation have a genuine and equal opportunity to participate in hockey at all levels and in all roles. This includes all members and spectators.

Purpose of the Policy

This policy has been produced to identify and eradicate barriers, and to tackle/prevent discrimination or other unfair unjustifiable unfair treatment. This covers all acts, whether intentional or unintentional, direct or indirect, which may preclude some people participating fully in hockey.

Aldershot and Farnham HC shall:

- Ensure that there will be open access to all its services
- Eliminate prejudice against any group by removing barriers
- Select and train all members of Aldershot and Farnham HC solely on the basis of merit & ability and by adapting facilities and equipment where necessary and reasonably possible
- Communicate to all members its commitment to equal opportunities
- Fulfil its social responsibility to all members ensuring that appropriate support is given
- Make every reasonable effort to prepare and produce materials that are appropriate for all persons in respect of language, format and approach
- Modify any existing rules and regulations that may inhibit the inclusion of any groups, provided this does not result in the deterioration of equality required by the EH
- Aldershot and Farnham HC recognises its legal obligations and will take account of:
 - Equality Act 2010
 - Rehabilitation of Offenders 1974 (and Exemptions Order 1975)
 - Human Rights Act 1998

Definitions

- Equality in Sport
This is about fairness, equality of access, recognising inequalities and taking steps to address them. It is about evolving the culture of hockey to ensure that it is equally accessible to all members of society.
- Sports Equality
This is about an individuals and organisations responsibility to challenge discriminatory practice and promote inclusion.
- Direct Discrimination
Direct Discrimination is defined as treating a person less favourably than others would be treated in the same circumstances
- Being Equal
Treating individuals equally is not necessarily the equivalent of treating them the same. In some cases the need for equality may require unequal effort to ensure the principal is achieved.
- Indirect Discrimination
Indirect discrimination is when there's a practice, policy or rule which applies to everyone in the same way, but it has a worse effect on some people than others. The Equality Act says it puts you at a particular disadvantage.
- Harassment
Harassment can be described as inappropriate actions, behaviour, comments or physical contact that are objectionable or cause offence to the recipient. It may be directed towards people because of their age, sexuality, disability or some other characteristic.

- Victimisation

This is defined as when someone is treated less favourably than others because he or she, acting in good faith, has made an earlier complaint of unlawful discrimination against or to AFHC under one of the relevant acts/regulations or provided information about inappropriate behaviour; harassment or discrimination.

Conduct

Aldershot and Farnham HC regards discrimination and harassment as outlined above as gross misconduct and any member of Aldershot and Farnham HC who so discriminates against any other person shall be liable to appropriate disciplinary action.

Implementation

- A copy of the policy shall be available to all members of Aldershot and Farnham HC through the club website www.afhockey.com and policies will be identified as being available on all membership forms. All these persons shall respect, act in accordance with and thereby support and promote the spirit and intentions of this policy
- A planned approach shall be adopted to remove discrimination against any group
- Aldershot and Farnham HC shall be committed to working only alongside those individuals or organisations who are prepared to demonstrate the principles and practice of equity as laid out in this document

Positive action

Aldershot and Farnham HC may take positive action or introduce special measures for a group that is currently under-represented in its membership or representative bodies.
